Corona Research Wins Strategic Planning and Board Retreat Facilitation Work for The Denver Foundation, SafeHouse Denver, Inc. and Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado

Denver, February, 16, 2007 – Corona Research, the leading market/demographic research and strategic planning firm in the Rocky Mountain recently won projects to develop strategic plans for The Denver Foundation, Colorado’s oldest and largest community foundation, and SafeHouse Denver, Inc., a non-profit organization that provides emergency shelter, counseling and support for women and children who are victims of domestic violence.

In addition to project work, Corona Research will facilitate a board retreat on Saturday, February 24th at Snow Mountain Ranch for Volunteers for Outdoor Colorado, a non-profit organization dedicated to helping conservation groups recruit volunteers for various projects. Retreat topics will include examining board effectiveness within the organization and re-evaluating the vision for the organization.

Karla Raines, who leads the strategic planning practice for Corona Research, will be Project Manager and retreat facilitator.
